Summer Reading is Right Around the Corner

It's time to start thinking about summer plans! Why not plan on coming to the library?

We've got plenty of programs in the works for children pre-k through high school. Our Summer Reading Program Kick-Off will take place June 4th at the Lakefront Park bandshell from 10:30 AM to 12:30 PM. There will be snacks, books, a petting zoo, and more!

Come pick up a Summer Reading booklet and peruse all of our summer offerings. The whole family is welcome!

Why did the chicken cross the road?

To go to Annie's Keeping Chickens for Beginners program! Join us for a discussion and presentation with veteran chicken keeper, Annie Goldberg on Saturday, May 18 from 10:30-11:30 AM. There will be live chicks! Everyone welcome.

Tech Help at Woodland Hills

Our devoted librarians Matt and Joan have been visiting Woodland Hills to answer tech questions and help with library card sign-ups. The two make an amazing team, often staying later than planned to make sure everyone gets the assistance they need.
